

Careers Fair – Saturday 18 March 2023
Advice for Choosing Talks

If you think you might be interested in a career in Business, then consider these talks:

- Becoming an International CEO
- Building Brands, Creating Value and having fun!
- Why become a Solicitor?
- What is it like to be an accountancy apprentice? An introduction to Accountancy Apprenticeships at Fortus
- How the digital world is penetrating our lives, the new innovations, the types of jobs and skills employers are looking for and routes into tech roles.
- How to actually succeed in Finance and Investment Banking
- Ping Pong, nap rooms and snacks- a career in Tech from a non-Techie
- My career in accountancy
- My experience as a JP Morgan Degree Apprentice
- Operations & Sales: From creating magic to delivering dream holidays
- Demystifying Banking - uncovering different career options
- Esports; The professional side of gaming
- Accountancy is more than just number crunching!
- My career in Real Estate and Property
- Commercial Apprenticeships – the first steppingstone in your career and where this can take you.
- Finding your feet after graduating, my PwC experience
- A Career in Psychology - where's the couch?

If you are creative and would like a career that puts these skills to good use, then consider:

- How To Design A Hypercar: an insightful talk on the world of Hypercar Design.
- Building Brands, Creating Value and having fun!
- My career as a concept artist in the film industry
- My career in Architecture
- Making a Fashion Degree work
- How product designers make the world a better place
- The Journey from a Bedroom Hobby to Global Games with Disney
- A bad idea is boring
- Operations & Sales: From creating magic to delivering dream holiday

If Computing, Engineering and Science are your thing then these might be of interest:

- How To Design A Hypercar: an insightful talk on the world of Hypercar Design
- A career in the RAF
- Sports Medicine
- A Career in Psychology - where's the couch?
- Working in the veterinary sector: vet surgeons, nurses and more.
- My career in Architecture
- How the digital world is penetrating our lives, the new innovations, the types of jobs and skills employers are looking for and routes into tech roles
- Ping Pong, nap rooms and snacks- a career in Tech from a non-Techie
- Life as an Army Officer
- How product designers make the world a better place
- The ABCs of Becoming a Paramedic
- Careers in the Royal Navy
- My career as a midwife
- The Journey from a Bedroom Hobby to Global Games with Disney
- Careers in Nursing
- Esports; The professional side of gaming
- Physiotherapy - how to become one and the different areas you can study
- A Career in Medicine.... and the many different paths it can take

If you are interested in jobs that involve working with people, then you might like these:

- There's a role for everyone in the Police
- Why become a Solicitor?
- Sports Medicine
- A Career in Psychology - where's the couch?
- Working in the veterinary sector: vet surgeons, nurses and more.
- The ABCs of Becoming a Paramedic
- My career as a midwife
- Careers in Nursing
- Physiotherapy - how to become one and the different areas you can study
- A Career in Medicine.... and the many different paths it can take
- Steps into teaching, Teaching your passion

If you want to find out more about going to university then be sure to attend one or two of the university talks.